Hey, mum, can I go to the park with Paul?

No, Matt, you can't. You know you're not allowed to go outside after 8pm.

Oh, ok. Can I go to the park with him tomorrow?

Yes, you can. But, don't forget, you have to clean the bathroom and tidy your bedroom tomorrow, too.

Ok, mum. Can I do my chores after I go to the park?

No, you must do your chores before you go to the park.

Ok, mum. Do I have to go to bed now?

No, you don't have to go to bed now. It's Friday night, so you are allowed to stay up a little later. You shouldn't stay up too late, though, or you will be tired tomorrow.

Ok, mum. Can I watch Youtube for an hour and then go to bed?

Yes, you can watch it for an hour. Then you need to brush your teeth and go to sleep.

Ok, thanks mum. See you tomorrow!

Why can't Matt go to the park tonight?

Activity 1

Breaking the rules!

You should always follow the rules at school, but sometimes it's fun to break the rules too!
Play a game with your teacher.

You and your teacher will take it in turns to give an instruction.
The other person should do the opposite of what they say.

For example:

Stand up = Don't stand up

Don't stand up = Stand up

The first person who follows an instruction will lose!

- You and your teacher will take it in turns to choose a square.
- Read the name of the place on the square.
- Name some rules that the place has.

For example: Place = Zoo Rule = Don't feed the animals.

- For each rule you name, you will get 1 point.
- Whoever has the most points at the end of the game is the winner!

School	Home	Library
Museum		Zoo
Swimming pool	Cinema	Restaurant

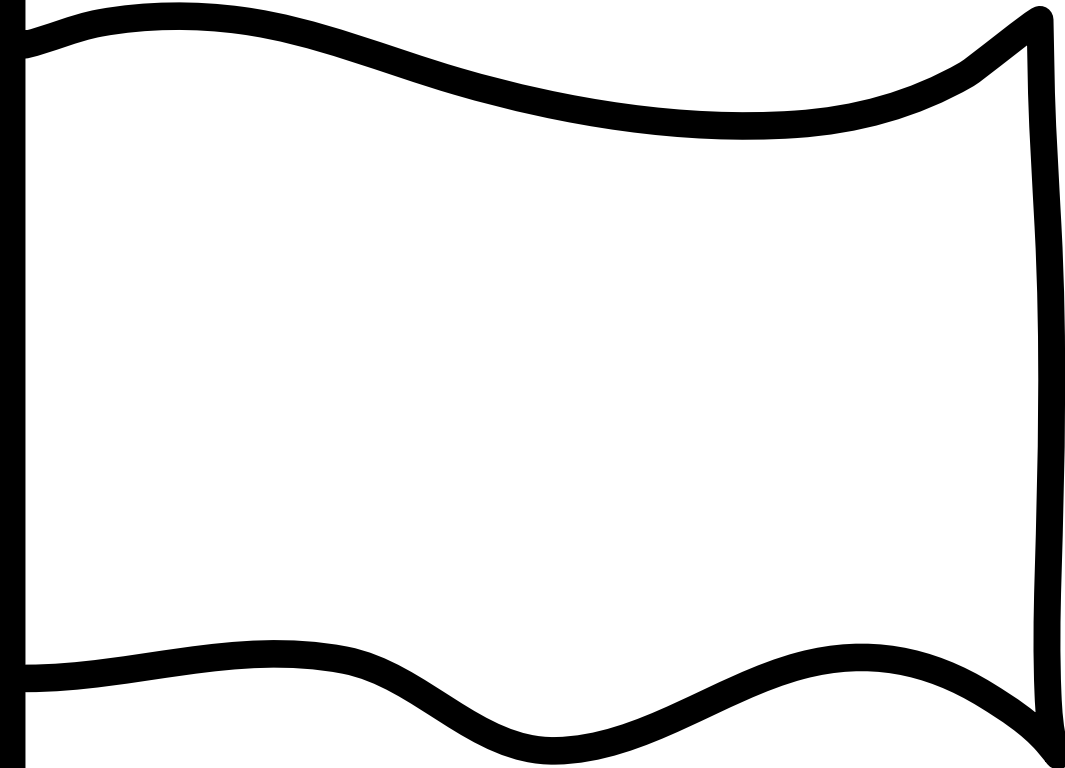

Activity 2

You just became the King / Queen of a country!
Being a King or Queen can be great, but there are also a lot of things you have to do.

Design your country's flag.

- Describe your flag.
- Say why you chose this design.

Decide what your country's rules will be.

For example:

Children are allowed to play outside all day.
Children don't have to do homework.

What will happen if someone doesn't follow
the rules of your country?
